

New Amicus AXA NCC Elected

Amicus representatives within AXA (including local workplace reps, learning reps and health & safety reps) have elected a new National Company Committee with effect from 1 May 2007.

The National Company Committee (NCC) is the policy and decision making body for Amicus within AXA. At the end of 2005 it was announced that a decision had been made to form a joint NCC that would cover AXA Life, AXA Insurance, AXA Shared Services, AXA UK and AXA Group Services. At the end of 2006 the AXA NCC reviewed this structure and decided to continue as a single NCC to best represent Amicus members across AXA. The decision was also made that a fresh election from the Amicus rep population would be held during 2007.

The members of the new AXA Amicus National Company Committee are:
