HSBC union rep
found murdered

murdered by death squad.

Union leader Leonidas Gómez Rozo, representing UNEB workers in HSBC in Columbia, was found brutally murdered on March 8th 2008.

UNEB had recently been in dispute with HSBC and concern had been raised over the fact that demonstrating workers and union officials had been filmed by a third party.

Columbia is the most dangerous country in the world to be a trade union rep with 2,574 having been murdered by right wing paramilitary death squads and state security forces in the last two decades. Hundreds more have been tortured, forcibly disappeared, displaced or imprisoned.
